Description:

The beautiful lavender plant, whose origin lies in the Mediterranean region, has won a permanent place in our gardens nowadays. Enchant your guests and visitors with the help of the artificial lavender also in your premises with southern flair by breathing a touch of Provence into your table and room decorations:

The lavender bush from Europalms reaches a stately overall size of about 61 cm and is therefore not to be overlooked. Its upright shoots with purple flowers and its needle-shaped leaves are made entirely of PE. Especially in a bunch, it can be arranged in many ways in vases or as an eye-catcher in the center of the table.

Compared to its natural model, the artificial lavender bush from Europalms has a great advantage: it cannot wilt and its flowers do not stain. A practical insertion rod made of PE also allows for quick and uncomplicated decorating.
