Description:

The Groundbreaker Mummy from Europalms provides the right eerie atmosphere at your Halloween festivities and should not be missing at any party!

Even though the mummy wrapped in gauze has not yet fully risen from its dark grave, it will give your party guests a good shiver down their spines.

While its eyes are flashing red, its head is jerkily moving back and forth. At the same time, the figure tries to "grab" with both arms anyone who comes too close to it. There is a groaning and moaning sound with chains rattling.

Around each wrist, an approx. 35 cm long chain made of plastic is attached. Some chain links are unraveled on one side, so that additional accessories can be included in the decoration.

The animation of the bust is activated by integrated microphone or wired manual control. Before operating, please ensure a sufficiently large and secured set-down area, as the figure moves by itself.
