Description:

The diabolically grinning hanging ghost figurine is the ideal addition to your spooky decorations. With maniacal laughter and flashing red LED eyes, the hanging ghost from Europalms will greet guests at your Halloween or theme party. He is so angry that his whole body vibrates, but luckily his scrawny hands are placed in medieval handcuffs. These are connected by a long chain and keep him well in check. The ghost is dressed in a multi-layered, frayed robe in white and beige. In addition, he wears a checkered pointed hat with a wide brim. The bow, which is used for hanging, is also attached to it.

The animation of the hanging figure is activated by an integrated microphone or wired manual control. Its arms can be easily bent into shape.
